RACING AND BREEDING OVERSEAS HORSES IN AUSTRALIA

The procedures that owners/trainers of overseas horses have to follow when they bring their horse to race/breed in Australia differ, depending on how long the horse plans to reside in Australia and whether or not it already has a name. To ensure that you fill out all of the appropriate forms and follow the necessary procedures, please refer to the heading relevant to your horse/s.

Please note that in accordance with the Australian Rule of Racing AR.60 you must notify the local handicappers of your horse's form. This should include Total Starts, Date of Last Start and Total Prize money earned overseas.

Unnamed overseas horses

Import application

An import application must be submitted upon each entry in to Australia to the Australian Stud Book.

Horse identification

When the import application and fee is received, the ASB will send an identification kit to be completed by an ASB approved veterinarian. Upon acceptance of satisfactory identification and receipt of the Stud Book Certificate of Exportation from the overseas authority, the horse will be eligible for registration.

Application for Registration

An application for Registration is available at <https://racingaustralia.horse/RoR/RegisterHorse.aspx> An owner can be a natural person, registered syndicate, company, firm or stud (to race in the ownership of a company, firm or stud, these entities must be registered as a syndicate with the PRA in the state in which the horse will race).

Named overseas horses – to be trained by an Australian Trainer

If the current name is not available in Australia, a name change will need to apply.

Named overseas horses – to be trained by an Overseas Trainer

Import application

An import application must be submitted upon each entry in to Australia to the Australian Stud Book.

Application for Temporary Registration

An application for Registration is available at <https://racingaustralia.horse/RoR/RegisterHorse.aspx> An owner can be a natural person, registered syndicate, company, firm or stud (to race in the ownership of a company, firm or stud, these entities must be registered as a syndicate with the PRA in the state in which the horse will race).

If the current name is not available in Australia, a name change will need to apply.

The person responsible for the horse in Australia needs to provide a copy of the Registration Certificate or Passport to the Registrar of Racehorses' office.

Upon receipt of the Racing Clearance from the overseas authority together with prior racing form the horse will be endorsed as a temporary visitor for racing by Racing Australia.

If the horse is transferred to an Australian trainer or retires to breeding in Australia, the temporary visa will be reverted to a permanent import and a DNA identification kit will be required to be completed.

Australian bred horses returning from overseas

Import application

An import application must be submitted upon each entry in to Australia to the Australian Stud Book.

Upon receipt of the Stud Book Certificate of Exportation from the overseas authority the horse will be eligible for Registration if unnamed or racing and breeding purposes if previously Registered in Australia.

Unnamed Imported Horse Ownership Declaration (Not required for Named Racehorses or Breeding Horses)

Terms & Conditions – Unnamed Imported Horse Ownership Declaration

All owners

1. The owner is 18 years old or older.
2. The owner agrees to be bound by and comply with the Australian Rules of Racing and the Local Rules, Regulations, By-Laws and Conditions of the Principal Racing Authority (PRA) and the Racing Integrity Body (RIB) (where applicable) in whose State or Territory the owner resides or carries on the breeding of Thoroughbred horses or in which the horse shall be domiciled (as amended from time to time).
3. Without limiting any of the rules and regulations referred to in clause 2 above, the owner agrees to refrain from taking any step, or authorising any person to take any step, which may adversely affect the important role that Racing Australia (RA), PRAs and Race Clubs play in the administration, promotion and reporting of Thoroughbred racing and in the provision of racing materials.
4. The owner agrees they have notified RA if they have been, and undertakes to notify RA within 14 days if following lodgment of the Unnamed (AUS) Horse Transfer of Ownership they are:
 - (a) convicted of, or have a pending charge against them for, an indictable criminal offence or a criminal offence involving violence against a person or dishonest activity;
 - (b) convicted under the Australian Rules of Racing, the Local Rules of a PRA, or the rules of any other racing authority of any code; or
 - (c) convicted of, or have a pending charge against them for, an offence under any animal welfare/prevention of cruelty to animals legislation.
5. The owner agrees they may be required by RA, a PRA or a RIB to relinquish their share or interest in the horse (or any other horse) if convicted of or charged with an offence referred to in clause 4 above.
6. The owner consents to RA providing the owner's contact details to the manager of the horse solely for the purpose of the manager contacting the owner in relation to the horse.
7. The owner consents to any future changes to the ownership composition and structure of the horse if the owner is a remaining owner and there are no changes to the owner's share percentage.
8. If there is a future change to the ownership composition and structure of the horse, the owner consents to the manager signing and/or lodging any Unnamed Horse Transfer of Ownership form and/or Change of Share % form on behalf of the owner if the owner is a remaining owner and there is no change to the owner's share percentage.
9. The owner agrees that RA, any PRA and/or any RIB, to the maximum extent permitted by law, is not liable to make any payment for any claim, loss, damage, liability, cost or expense that may arise from:
 - (a) the processing of an Unnamed (AUS) Horse Transfer of Ownership;
 - (b) the manager of the horse dealing with the horse (including in respect of a transfer of ownership or change of share %) on behalf of the owner.
10. The owner agrees that all information provided to RA, PRAs, Stewards, RIBs and Race Clubs is true and correct, and that the owner may be subject to penalty for providing any false or misleading information or failing to disclose any information the owner is required to provide.

Where the owner is the manager

11. The owner (manager) agrees the names listed on the Unnamed (AUS) Horse Transfer of Ownership form fully disclose the true, complete and accurate ownership of the horse.
12. The owner (manager) agrees that before signing and/or lodging an Unnamed (AUS) Horse Transfer of Ownership form and/or Change of Share % form on behalf of any remaining owners, the owner (manager) will notify all such owners of the changes to the ownership composition and structure of the horse.
13. The owner (manager) indemnifies RA, any PRA and/or any RIB against any claim, loss, damage, liability, cost or expense that arises from the owner (manager) dealing with the horse (including in respect of a transfer of ownership or change of share %) on behalf of another person.

Privacy and personal information

The personal information collected by RA on this form may include your name, date of birth, address, mobile number, email address, bank account/credit card details and GST status/ABN. RA may also collect personal information about you which may be considered sensitive or protected under applicable laws.

The purpose of collecting your personal information is for RA's legitimate interests, including to:

- identify you and, in some cases, verify your identity;
- contact you;
- facilitate the administration of racing and breeding;
- ensure compliance with the Australian Rules of Racing and the Rules of the Australian Stud Book;
- enable PRAs to fulfill their regulatory responsibilities; and
- carry out any other function or activity described in our Privacy Policy available at <https://racingaustralia.horse/AboutUs/PrivacyPolicy.aspx>.

If your personal information is not collected, either on this form or otherwise when requested by RA, we may not be able to process your application.

RA may also obtain personal information about you from, or disclose your personal information to, third parties such as PRAs, enforcement agencies, government authorities, appeal bodies, race clubs, other racing control bodies (including PRA equivalents in harness and greyhound) in Australia and overseas, industry associations such as breeders, trainers and owners associations, wagering service providers, livestock auctioneers, educational or training institutions and to other persons for any of the purposes described above, in our Privacy Policy or as otherwise provided by law. Names of racehorse owners are publicly available on the RA website.

We otherwise use, disclose and handle your personal information in accordance with our Privacy Policy. If you are concerned about a possible interference with your privacy, or wish to access and request changes to the personal information held about you, please contact RA's Privacy Officer at privacy@racingaustralia.horse. Privacy complaints to RA must be made in writing.

For information about how the PRAs use your personal information, please visit the relevant PRA's website.
